We enjoy all the advantages of our special location in the Barbican Arts and Cultural Center: our direct access to world-class galleries, theaters and concert halls, being at the heart of the financial center of the world and hosting large numbers of influential guest speakers. We recognize and share the privilege and promise of our lives, creating relationships with a sustained impact on our broader communities. Our City Partners, City of London College, the school family of the City Corporation

City of London School for Girls defies simple categorisation, academic but unstuffy, progressive yet deeply conscious of its past, diverse but with a clear sense of identity. Our peculiar geography, nestled between the brutalist Barbican and looming Roman walls, best illustrates this. Ours is an atmosphere that is intellectually edgy, unassuming and unpretentious, uncut by tradition and imbued with a comfortable excellence. This is a new and refreshing environment in which to learn.
