Gremio de Brixton Tapas Restaurant, Vaulted cellar bar in a church crypt serving Spanish tapas and wines, with Latino bands and DJs in a fantastic atmosphere, food fabulous, very friendly service from staff. Pretty good restaurant. You sit outside in the church grounds - very cool location. The food is very good.

The best tapas you have ever had, so much flavour and lovely staff. You can booked in advance but there is lots of space in a great atmosphere. Very reasonable prices and a great range of food.
