Motivated Leads is owned by real estate investors and they specialize in helping other seasoned investors generate motivated seller leads via Google and facebook. We have spent millions of dollars running ad campaigns and generating leads for real estate flippers and wholesalers across the USA, Canada and other various countries.

- real estate flippers near you,
- motivated seller leads for wholesalers,
- distressed home seller leads,
- motivated seller leads for real estate investors,
- real estate brokers,
- wholesale real estate,
- real estate flippers.

Having a team of digital marketing professionals that actually understand the business is a huge deal. We know the difference from an MLS listing lead to a motivated seller that wants to sell a distressed property.
